To Do, To Try, To Buy - Here's Why:

1. Candy Cane Joe Joe's - $2.69 for a 16 oz. box
Smooth vanilla cream, studded with real candy cane pieces in between crisp chocolate wafer cookies - mmm, mmm, yum.

2. Peppermint Bark - $9.99 for a 16 oz. box
Crushed peppermint candy layered between white truffle fudge and peppermint infused dark chocolate... deep breath...[sigh].

3. Panettone - $4.99 for a 26.5 oz. box
From Veneto, Italy, a region renowned for panettone prowess - this traditional Italian cake is crafted using real butter and an abundance of plump raisins & candied fruits - delicious.

How to Candy Cane Joe Joe's 101:
- Eat cookie whole - smile
- Twist open, lick smooth, minty creamy filling - crunch on cookies.
- Blend with vanilla ice cream to make a creamy, smooth peppermint-y shake.
- Crumble & top pies, cakes, ice cream.
- Dunk - cold milk or hot cocoa

••••Panettone is a proud piece of cake••••
And from it you can make the most memorable French toast or bread pudding
that will encourage everyone to partake
••

To gift: work colleagues party hosts/hostesses favorite school teachers stocking stuffer (not too close to the fire)
sweet second cousins
anyone you think is pretty swell...
.....

From The Desk Of TRADER JOE'S